Caution Notice

It has come to our notice that some applicants have been approached by people claiming to represent Shiv Nadar University and assuring admission upon payment of amount over and above the fees declared on the University's website.

We hereby unequivocally state that Shiv Nadar University does not authorize any agent or organization to represent the University. All aspirants are cautioned against dealing with such people.

Also, Shiv Nadar University does not have any management quota or paid seat for admission into the University. There is only one merit based selection process communicated on the website that every aspirant has to earn their admission through. We do not entertain any exceptions to the declared criteria or attempts to influence the established process for any reason whatsoever.
